Miss Forcade Becomes Bride Of Anthony Brothers On Friday

MRS. ANTHONY BROTHMAN she was Miss Yvonne Forcade

Miss Yvonne Forcade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilberto E. Forcade, of 2421 Bernard, became the bride of Anthony B. Brothman son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brothman, of San Antonio, the afternoon of Friday, July fourth.

The nuptial Mass was celebrated in St. Mary Mother of the Church. The bride's uncle was violinist for the ceremony as was her grandfather, Joe Corpean. Rocky Diaz was organist. The church was decorated in white muslin and glassware while white ribbons marked family pews and candlesticks holding white taper candles graced the altar.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a summer wedding gown of ivory gaudy with Nottingham lace insets in the Victorian fashion. The molded bodice featured vertical bands of lace and a handkerchief collar. A row of tiny white buttons accented the yoke. Her sheer bishop sleeves closed at the wrists with bands of lace and the A-line skirt fell from a raised waistline enclosed by lace. The deep bodice was flounced in the garlands of Nottingham and Vienna lace and her hairdo was styled in elegant length. A Juliet cap covered in braided embroidery and pearls held her hairdo in place which fell to flow and colonial ring.

Miss Theresa Krigger, cousin of the bride served as maid of honor. The matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Martinez, Jr., sister of the bride. Miss Susan Jack and Miss Mimi Corpean, a cousin, served as bridesmaids. Each wore a button-upte gown of floral printed crepe with gathered front and V-neckline with bow front and a cape collar. The background of the gowns were white and the print was in a range of apricot tones, the brides chosen color.

The bridegroom was attended by Jeff Walters, Groomsmen were Mike Brothman, his brother, Gilbert Forcade, II, the brother of the bride, and Robert Martinez, Jr.

Miss Forcade wore an ivory gaudy gown, A-line in style with a matching cape and finished in embroidered French lace. Mrs. Brothman was given in marriage. Her two bridesmaids gowns were formal in length and featured three-quarter bell sleeves.

Arrangements of white and apricot cut-out flowers were the featured decorations during the Holiday Inn reception which followed the ceremony. Mrs. Eduardo De La Sota served table and Mrs. Rachel Oliva offered punch to the guests. The bride's book was presented at by Misses Amy Martinez and Jamie Hoggan.

The bride is a graduate of Oliver Wendell Holmes High School in San Antonio and attended Del Mar College in Corpus Christi. The bridegroom is a graduate of the same high school and attended Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio.

Following their marriage the couple will live in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Miss Joyce Aleman Weds In Virginia

MRS. PATRICK HARRINGTON she was Miss Joyce Aleman

Miss Joyce Aleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins P. Aleman, of 126 Loma Alta became the bride of Randy James Harrington, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Richard T. Harrington of Wytheville, Virginia, in an afternoon ceremony in the Holy Trinity United Methodist Church in Wytheville, on Saturday, June 21.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend William Berry, with a program of nuptial music presented by the organist Mrs. Benjamin Spraggel of Staunton, Virginia.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William E. Aleman, wore a formal tulle gown of white organza and lace. The bodice was finished with a high neckline, a sheer yoke and long sleeves with a princess style skirt that swept into a chapel train. Her veil fell from a matching headpiece and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white Magnolia daisies, yellow sweetheart roses and baby's breath accented by yellow and white streamers tied in bow knots.

Mrs. William E. Aleman of Staunton was her sister's maid of honor. Best man was Mrs. Richard Lapham, Jr. of Staunton, sister in law of the bridegroom.

Randolph Lapham of North Carolina served as best man for his brother, while another brother, Richard Lapham, Jr. served as usher.

A reception honoring the newly wed couple was held after the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Lapham attended Brownsville High School and completed her senior year at Robert L. Lee High School in Virginia. She is presently employed by Fiberspan, Inc., in Staunton.

The bridegroom was graduated from Robert L. Lee High School and is a second year student at Blue Ridge Community College. He is employed by United Parcel Service, in Fishersville, Virginia.

The couple will reside in Staunton.

Evening Ceremony Unites Couple

The Church of the Advent, Episcopal was the setting for the ceremony which united Miss Clarissa Eugenia Mitchell and Patrick Patrick Harrington in holy marriage the evening of Friday, June 21.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrington of 1313 Snowfield Road.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Mitchell, of Patton Road.

The double ring service was performed by Rev. J. Rufus Stewart. White glassed and majestic daisies were arranged on the altar while the family pews were marked by small bouquets of daisies held by ribbons. Organist was Miss Paula Hagan.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an elegant style gown of chiffon with three fitted sleeves. The scalloped bodice, cuffs and scalloped hemline and train were embroidered in rose pearls. Her mantilla of sheer tulle was edged in pearl applique lace and to complete her attire she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses surrounded by daisies and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Olga Vera, Mrs. Ray Duran, of Harrington, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. The Matron of Honor, Lynn O'Neil, Deborah Smith, and Jo Ann Winkler were the bridesmaids. Each wore a gown of ivory silk with a pattern of printed organza. The maid and matron of honor were given in yellow and the bridesmaids were blue. Each carried a bouquet of daisies. The flower girl, Jana Michelle Vera, carried a basket of daisies. Ring bearer was Ian Gutzko.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Bruce Schmidt, of Los Fresnos. Richard Waldron, of Los Fresnos, served as best usher. Church Harrington, the bridegroom's brother from Valley Mills; Matt Harrington another brother, from College Station; Ty Harrison, uncle of the bridegroom from Garland, and Rocky Moore, served as usher.

The mother of the bride wore blue crepe, empire in style with white accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother was given in bride with a matching floral chiffon jacket. Her corsage was also of sweetheart roses.

A reception at the Barnard Inn followed the ceremony. The wedding table was of four sets, decorated in blue, white and white tulle, topped with the traditional bride and bridegroom figures. The bridegroom's cake was chocolate, decorated with a mystery-colored moose. Members of the house party included Mrs. Tracy McTurner, and Miss Jill Vera. Gifts were received by the newly married couple and their parents.

Pre-nuptial courses included a shower hosted by Mrs. Janis Gutzko, and the Matron (Circi) and Gutzko. Another shower was given for the bride by Mrs. Charles F. Mink and Mrs. George Fernandez.

The bride, a former Haines High School graduate, is currently employed at Fred Mac's Pharmacy. The bridegroom is a Brownsville High School graduate and attends Texas Southern College while being employed by Southwestern Bell.

The couple frequented Acapulco and Mexico City for their wedding trip and are now at home in Brownsville.
