HENRY FAMILY NOTES

Simeon Henery - Born in Cavan, Ireland, 1720 - Died 1823 -- 103 yrs.

Thomas Henery, son of Simeon, lived his life in Ireland. b. 1752, d. 1818. Married a Quaker. He had one son, John - one daughter, Mary.

John Henery lived in Drumless, a townland situated in the electoral division of Corr, in the County of Cavan, Ireland. b. 1774, d. 1836. Married Nancy Biggar, b. 1776, d. 1816. They had seven children:

- 4 sons - Thomas, not known, James, William
- 3 daughters - Names unknown.

In 1811 the family set sail for America. After seven weeks, they arrived in New York, then on to Albany. They made their way by boat and wagon up the Mohawk Trail to Niagara Falls (Lewiston), and thence by boat to Toronto (York). In 1816, John bought a farm in the Township of Whitby, at Port Oshawa-on-the-Lake and moved there with his family. His wife, Nancy, died in 1816 and John re-married. There is no record of any additional family members born to John and his second wife in Canada. John Henery changes the family name from Henery to Henry on arrival in Canada. He died in 1836 and is buried in Oshawa, Ontario, Canada.

Thomas Henry, eldest son of John and Nancy, b. 2 Feb. 1798, d. 1879.

Thomas was a minister of the Christian Church in Ontario. He was a famous man in his time. His home was a large stone house on the Lake Ontario shore which later on became a museum in his honour, "Henry House Museum" at Oshawa, Ontario. Rev. Thomas Henry had a brother, born 1800, whose name is unknown. It is believed he died unmarried shortly after coming to Canada.

Rev. Thomas Henry had three sisters. One married Jesse Trull, who owned and operated a ship on Lake Ontario. One sister married and lived in the State of Michigan, U.S.A. (She was still alive in 1871), and the other was unmarried and lived with her brother, Rev. Thomas Henry.

James was a younger brother, b. 1802, d. 1845.

He was married about 1825, and it is believed his wife was an Ellis from the Oshawa area. James and his wife moved to the Guelph area about 1830 and raised a family of nine children.

William was Rev. Thomas Henry's youngest brother, b. 1808, d. 1884.

He was also a minister in the Christian Church in the Harriston, Ontario area. His parish included Mount Forest, Arthur, Drayton, and several other smaller communities. In 1845 he and his brother, Rev. Thomas Henry, attended their brother's (James) funeral near Guelph. William was still alive in 1880, and at that time was the only surviving member of his father's family. No record has been found of his wife or family.

Thomas Henry's mother, Nancy Biggar, was buried on the hill across the harbour of Oshawa-on-the-Lake. Thomas was then 18 years old. His father, John, was buried on the hill in 1836.

In 1848-49, Thomas Henry, assisted by Elder George Coulson, published a Hymn Book - not reprinted.

Thomas Henry himself died September 1879 at the Stone house (now Henry House Museum), with daughter Elizabeth (Dearborn), and daughter-in-law, Polly Ann (son George's wife) present. Some of the family were always there, as wife, Lurenda, was a cripple.

Rev. Thomas Henry was buried beside his mother, Nancy Biggar. The old cemetery on the hill across the Oshawa Harbour has now been moved, and the grave stones are today grouped on Guy's Point (Bonnie Brae), next to the Lakeview Park, Oshawa.

Rev. Thomas Henry preached for forty-two years. Rev. W. W. DeGeer read the Scripture at his funeral service. Rev. W. W. DeGeer came from Michigan, and was the Minister at the Christian Church for two years. There were 18 Ministers at the service, and 85 carriages lined the road in front of the church. This church was later named Centre Street United Church in 1928. In 1967 the building was demolished for expansion of the City Hall of Oshawa, and the congregation merged with Centennial United Church.
