

3/10/1932

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Bessie Nephews,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Alex Nephews, Defendants. )
DEGREE

Now on this 10th day of March, 1932, it being one of the days of the Adjourned December, 1931, Term of the District Court of Jefferson County, Nebraska, this cause came on to be heard on the petition of the plaintiff, the defendant having been legally served with summons in person, and having failed to answer or otherwise plead, and his default having been entered of record herein, and the evidence, the same was submitted to the Court, on consideration whereof, and upon independent investigation made by the Court herein, the Court finds that it has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter of the action, and that said persons were married as set forth in said petition, and that the defendant, regardless of his duties and obligations as a husband, and without any provocation on the part of the plaintiff, has been guilty of habitual drunkenness and cruelty, as alleged in said petition.

It is therefore considered by the Court that the marriage relation heretofore existing between said parties be and the same is hereby set aside and wholly annulled, and the parties released from the obligations of the same, and that Lot 4, Block 5 of King's Second Addition to Fairbury, Jefferson County, Nebraska, subject to all encumbrances of record, be and the same is hereby assigned to the plaintiff, Bessie Nephews, to have and to hold to her and her heirs and assigns forever, as her separate property as alimony herein, and that the defendant be required to pay $50.00 to Barnes & Rain, Attorneys for the plaintiff herein, and the sum of $ the costs of this action.

This decree shall not be final or operative until six months after the date hereof.
