HI SCRIBBLER SCRAPS

STUPID CUPID.

As the mood of Valentine's Day settles over Watertown High School, the thoughts of many students turn to love. Cupid is a very busy and popular fellow. Mac is thinking about the "Hazel Eyes" of a certain cheerleader. Squeaky is busy seeking the answer to "A Lover's Question". Brian, "The Lonely One", said "Goodbye Baby" and joined Kathy H. in "Lonesome Town". Joe and Susie are softly humming "My Happiness". Shari is bragging about her "All American Boy". "Stupid Cupid" confesses "I Cried A Tear" for all the "Problems" I caused Nancy and Dianne. Sherry's "Love of My Life" is an ex-prom king. A Certain Sophomore will be celebrating "16 Candles" but finds the "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes". Cupid's comment "All I Have to Do is Dream" about a perfect Valentine's Day.

APRIL GARDENS FEATURED AT PROM

Elected Prom King, Tom Justman and his date, Queen Helen Fendt, will reign over "I'll Remember April", the 1958 Junior Prom. Runners up were Ralph Krueger and Chuck Harberg, who will be on the court of honor with Sue Kressin and Barb Poellet, respectively. Other members of the royalty will be junior class president John Kressin and his date Joanne Gmeinder; vice-president Larry Kapheim and Chris Klecker; class secretary Phyllis Hertel and her escort, Toby Tesch; and treasurer of the class, Susie Kehl and her date John Ponath. All of the committees have been working hard to make this a prom not soon to be forgotten. The decorations committee with co-chairmen Larry Kapheim and Chuck Harberg has been busy planning and working on the decorations. Ceiling committee co-chairmen are Edith Niemann and Chris Klecker. The sidewalls are another division with co-chairmen Karen Krueger and Susie Turke. The floor committee consists of: Cynthia Loeb, Alice Lapp, and Muriel Higgins.

Watertown High School Principal Eugene Tornow and Miss Myra MacInnis will act as chaperones for the students.

BUZZ BOOKS

Every year a school telephone book is put out by the Girls Club. It is called the Buzz Book and sells for 30 cents. In it is an alphabetical listing of all students in grades 7 thru 12, their addresses and phone numbers. The two seniors in charge this year are Judy Melcher and Sue Kressin.

RALPH AND LEIGH HONORED BY LOCAL ROTARY CLUB

Ralph Krueger was chosen the Rotary Boy of January. Ralph's subjects consist of intermediate math, typing, English IV, and American Problems.

At present, Ralph is quite busy with basketball. He has won letters in football, basketball, and track. Ralph is vice-president of his senior class and is also vice-president of the newly formed W Club. Planning to attend college, with several prospects in mind, Ralph is going into the field of teaching and coaching.

Leigh Larson has been chosen Rotary Boy for February because of his outstanding qualities of leadership in both school and extra-curricular activities. His subjects include: College Prep English, physics, third year math, and American Problems. He enjoys golf and basketball which he plays during his spare time. Leigh is an avid member of the newly formed W Club.

His plans for next year are a bit undecided but he hopes to attend the University of Wisconsin.

GADABOUT HI

Jerry, what do you think of Mary Ann's driving?

A sophomore boy, John M., had his picture taken New Year's Eve, which proved quite embarrassing! How about that, Audrey N.?

Joan & Joe, what's this we hear about your new name "The Fighting Irish?"

Chuck R.-Is three detentions the payment you get for that beautiful ballet dance in English?

What is this we hear about the Latin class? Was the exam really that bad?

GOSLINGS DROP FINAL THREE

Homecoming 1958 was dismal for Watertown fans as the Goslings took a 19-6 beating at the hands of the Muskego Warriors. With this defeat the Goslings relinquished first place in the Braveland conference to Port Washington.

BASKETBALL SEASON NOW UNDERWAY

Workouts began Monday, Nov. 3 for twenty varsity basketball prospects and a large group of freshmen and sophomores trying out for the B squad. It was the first practice of the season for both teams. The coaches spent the first few days on training rules and getting the boys into shape. Coach Grabow has 20 boys out for the A squad. However, only 14 of these are actually being considered for placement on the varsity. High on the list as probable starters are Tom Gamroth, Ralph Krueger, Dave Engelbrecht, Reed Larson, Dick Schuman, and Dick Rhode.

YAC YAC

How many times in the past month have you heard the expression, "What a dead town!"? There's never anything to do! If you have been a victim of this depression-look ashamed. At the beginning of the year, attention was focused critically on the "YAC" to see if it would survive. At the present the attendance has radically decreased and has gone from very good to bad. Through the combined efforts of Bob Sievert and Mr. Barry, they have tried to make the "YAC" a success; but to make it a permanent organization it needs the support of you, the teenagers of Watertown.

CHARLES HARBERG SELECTED PRESIDENT

The results of the elections for senior class officers were announced on Monday, Nov. 17. Charles Harberg will serve his classmates as president, assisted by vice-president Ralph Krueger, secretary Gretchen Burzynski, and John Kressin, who was chosen treasurer.

SPRING STYLES

"Spring is the time when a young man's fancy turns to what the girls have been thinking about all winter!" This year, however, it seems the young ladies attention has been strongly focused on another interest—the chemise. It seems quite a few W.H.S. girls will be sporting them when they make their appearance with the first breath of spring on Easter morn. Well, let's go down to the Easter Parade and see just what Watertownites are wearing this spring. Here we are on Fifth Avenue and the parade is just beginning to form. Now here come the ladies on parade! First, Miss Nancy Peterson wearing a fabulous chemise-Dior, no doubt. It seems, however, Nan has quite a problem—"the girls" seem to think it's quite a joke! Chin up, Nan! It's really "the thing". Here comes "Imp" and "Bernie" sporting Bermudas and knee socks. Too bad the other boys don't have knees like those! Diane Reinhard, Gretchen Burzynski and Sue Kressin, next in line, are appearing in one of the three one-act plays, playing the roles of mannequins in a store window! But, Diane! Why do you have a sweater on? Still running about after playing your solo, having your picture taken, etc. all on the same day? Many, many more follow with a wide variation of costume, a few more venturesome souls wearing balloon-dresses, chemises and the like, but generally everyone looking their finest, regardless of the fads and fashions, for they are Watertown High kids, for the most part, always looking tops in whatever type of parade they're in.

WRESTLERS IMPROVE

Despite numerous injuries the Goslings have landed in the win column for a third time. On Jan. 13, the matmen bowed to Hartford by a 25 to 10 score. Piper got the lone pin, while Joe Rhodes decisioned his opponent. Ed Twesme battled his man to a draw in the unlimited weight class.
